

LEAF Edmonton
Women's Law Forum

Marginalized Women:

Challenging History and Contemporary Inaction

Wednesday, February 6, 2013

7:00pm

Human Ecology Building

University of Alberta

(at 88th Ave and 116th Street)

Everyone welcome. No cost to attend.

This event will begin with a guided tour of the Pioneer Ladies (of the Evening) exhibit on the first floor of the Human Ecology building, followed by a discussion with:

Dr. Laurie Bertram, exhibit curator and historian specializing in memory, gender and trauma

Jodi Stonehouse, Michel First Nation, graduate student and CJSR radio host

Muriel Stanley Venne, President and Founder, Institute for the Advancement of Aboriginal Women

Sponsored by LEAF Edmonton and the Women's Law Forum.

With generous support from the Health Sciences Association of Alberta, the Canadian Union of Postal Workers Edmonton Local, and Cochard Johnson.

Please email Edmonton@leaf.ca for further information.