information about the Special Rapporteur, what the scope of his work in Canada will be, and how to make a presentation to the UN Special Rapporteur.

The purpose of the Special Rapporteur's visit to Canada is to examine the situation of Indigenous Peoples in light of inherent rights recognized and affirmed in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. This Consultation will provide an opportunity for Indigenous Peoples to share information with the Special Rapporteur on conditions that currently exist in Canada that affect their political, social, economic, cultural, environmental, Treaty and other rights.
